Beloved in Christ,

The resurrected Lord is the source and inspiration of our lives and the centre of our worship. He meets us in the corridors of life and enriches it by just being with us. Jesus meets the fearful disciples inside shut doors, He meets the two on the way to Emmaus, and He also meets the disciples at the sea of Tiberias who were labouring hard but could hardly net a catch.

All the encounters of Jesus are eye openers. He is in search of our commitment to His call. Peter and the other disciples who once responded to their master's call are now backsliding and attempting to make a success of their day-to-day lives. Going back to their traditional and familiar ways of life, headed for utter failure.

The great catch of fish at the seashore is not an explicit evidence of the wonder work of the Lord, but the helplessness of His disciples without their master.

Peter had an emotional commitment to Christ and was even ready to be crucified with his master, but he was shattered by the critic's anxious interrogation. Yet Jesus loved him and reinforced in him a thought for a wilful commitment.

The organ of spiritual perception for a believer is the thinking process, i.e. the mind. God does not try to appeal to our emotions. He appeals to our mind: our will, our thoughts. He asks – "Do you love me?" Peter now had to answer from his mind – very thoughtfully. When the disciples obeyed the Lord's command, they had a great catch of fish and even then the net did not break. Yes the maker of the universe knows the hidden treasures in the unseen wealth of the sea. Yes He holds our future. Jesus had already prepared a table for them with bread and fish and He invites them to His communion along with the fruits of their labour. He wants to bless their commitment and labour.

As the world celebrates 1st May as the Workers' Day, the day of labour, let us all submit the works of our hands at the altar of commitment to the Almighty.

As I take charge of this blessed and great church, I bow down before the throne of Grace, that we all may be guided by His ever abiding presence. My wife Smitha and our daughter Krupa, prayerfully greet you at this juncture.

I extend my sincere thanks and appreciation to our James Achan and Kochamma and their children for their untiring and faithful ministry to this congregation. May the Lord reward them and continue to use them mightily for the extension of His kingdom.

With prayerful regards,

KURIAN PETER ACHEN

PENTECOST

- ★ The word Pentecost means 'fiftieth'
- ★ It has an Old Testament background (Lev. 23:10-16). Celebration of the festival of the first fruits of the grain and the anniversary of the law to Moses in the Mount Sinai (Ex. 19)
- ★ It has evidence and signs of the spirit of God.
- ★ On the Jewish festival of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit came upon the early believers gathered in Jerusalem listed from 15 countries.
- ★ Wind as the sign of God's spirit is rooted in the Hebrew word - ruah and the Greek word Pneuma. ruah denotes wind : God blowing over dry bones to give new life (Ezek. 37: 9-14)
- ★ There is fire as a sign of divine presence, which is already popular to Jewish faith as burning bush (Ex. 3:2-5) the pillar of fire by night in the wilderness (Ex.13) and the consuming fire on the Mount Senai (Ex.24) and the acceptance of offering at Mount Carmel (1 King 18)
- ★ Spirit of Pentecost is uniting, transcending and equipping spirit.
- ★ Pentecost is the endorsement of the Resurrection and the fulfilment of the promise of a counsellor.

The outgoing Vicar of our church Rev. T.I. James and Assistant Vicar Rev. Dn. Aneesh M Kurian and Mulavukad Upadeshi Mr. V.M. Wilson were given a touching farewell at a function held after a combined service, on 26th April, 2009..

Members of the Immanuel congregation and those who were associated with the two priests and James Achen's family, found it difficult to come to terms with the fact that they were leaving Kochi, to take up fresh assignments as the Director of the CSI Mission Hospital, Codacal, as the Assistant Vicar of the CSI Cathedral, Kozhikode and Mr. V.M. Wilson to CSI Church, Vythiri respectively. We would also miss the three chirpy children – Ajay, Chinnu and Kunju.

A large number of people turned up at the function which ran into over two hours. Nine persons, representing the different church organizations and others, spoke about how James Achen invigorated the church through his innovative thinking and far-sighted actions. The daring demolition of the Moore Bhavan, the completion of work on the parsonage, the construction of an imposing church in place of the 100-year-old structure, the new church at Mulavukad, the visit of the then President APJ Abdul Kalam and the then Union Home Minister Shivraj Patil, the new vault at the Cemetery etc., came for praise.

Many speakers turned emotional as they recalled the pains that Achen underwent to reach out to the sick and the suffering and the regular house visits for birthdays, marriage anniversaries etc.,. The initiation of the Anakulam Mission Field, the host of programmes organized to help HIV-infected children and adults, the beginning of the Senior Citizens' Fellowship and Coffee Fellowship, too came for praise. Members spoke of how James Achen ensured that there was a right mix of missionary zeal, seriousness and the lighter side of life in the endeavours that began under his leadership. He had special affection for children and youth, which was reflected in the way the Sunday School sessions were made more interesting.

Achen's multi-tasking skills too came for praise – coordinating church construction works, while pursuing and getting a M.Phil in Developmental Studies from MG University, his memory power enabling him to remember the names of all – from infants to aged people, the meticulous way in which he maintained files in the computer, while at the same time taking care of both his father and father-in-law.

In his emotional reply, James Achen spoke of how God used him to bring about major changes in the church. "I would definitely miss a congregation while on my new

Day for Fasting and Intercession

We meet every third Friday for fasting and intercession. On this day the Church is kept open from 7.00 a.m. to 7.00 p.m. This month's meeting will be on 15th May. One can come at any time and pray for your needs and those of others. The fellowship prayer starts at 10.00 a.m. and goes on up to 3.00 p.m. Participants can share from the word of God and give their testimony. We have time for singing and considerable time for prayer. You can put your written prayer requests in the box kept in front of the church. Or you may e-mail rev.kurianpeter@gmail.com or call 9746473851. A special time is observed to pray for the sick. Those who are sick can come to the church between 9.00 a.m. and 10.30 a.m. for special prayers.
