Dear brothers and sisters,

Church of South India

The Church of South India (C.S.I.) is a union of many Protestant Christian churches spread throughout South India. It is the largest Protestant Church in India and the second largest denomination in terms of size after the Catholic Church in India. It is one of the four United Churches in the Anglican Communion.

The inspiration for this Union was born out of ecumenism inspired by the self-pronouncing words of Jesus Christ as found in Gospel of John - 17.21 - That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. "That they all may be one" is on the logo and is the motto of the Church of South India.

Brief History

The C.S.I. was inaugurated in September 27, 1947 at St. George's Cathedral, Madras (Chennai). It was formed through the union of the Anglican, Methodist, Congregational, Presbyterian, and Reformed churches in South India. The decision to merge South India's Protestant denominations began at a 1919 conference at Tranquebar (Tarangambadi), and the process was completed shortly after India's Independence. The creation of the Church of South India was a historic event in Christendom where, for the first time, churches with Episcopal and non-Episcopal traditions decided to form a union. The C.S.I. was one of the earliest forms of the united and uniting church.

Administration

The church is organized into 22 Dioceses, each under the supervision of a Bishop, including one Diocese at Jaffna in Sri Lanka. The Church is governed by a Synod with its headquarters in Chennai, which every two years elects a presiding Bishop, called the Moderator, who serves as titular head of the church. The Church has 3.8 million members in 14,000 congregations worldwide. The great majority of members are in the Indian states of Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Kerala, and Tamil Nadu. There are International representations in Sri Lanka, the United States, the United Kingdom, Australia, Canada, Bahrain, Kuwait, Qatar and the United Arab Emirates

The C.S.I. runs 2000 schools, 130 colleges and 104 hospitals in South India. In the 1960s the Church became conscious of its social responsibility and started organizing rural development projects. There are 50 such projects all over India, 50 training centers for young people, and 500 residential hostels for a total of 35,000 children.

Present Administrators

Moderator - The Most Rev. Dr. B P Sugandhar, Bishop-in-Medak
Deputy Moderator - Rt. Rev. S.Vasantha Kumar, Bishop in Karnataka Central
General Secretary - Dr. Mrs. Pauline Sathiamurthy
Treasurer - Mr. V. Kasthuri

The Motto and The Cross (Emblem)

The symbols - the lotus and the Christian cross - used in the logo of the church possess a rich cultural heritage which helps in understanding the call and the mission of the CSI Church.

The Lotus, a typical Indian flower, is a temple flower. Mythologically it is supposed to be the seat of the creator. Pankajam one of the Indian names for lotus has a very significant meaning, it means 'that born in mud'. This flower blossoms at sunrise and withers away after sunset; in other words it lives as long as it receives the rays of the sun, hence it is also called 'THAMMIPUVE' the flower of the sun. All these meaning attributed to the flower, suit us well to interpret the position, nature and role of the people in the bond of union.

The petals of the lotus and the cross are beautifully knitted together with the fiery-tongues of the Holy Spirit. It is an authentic Indian expression of people's communion with God. The original colors, red (for life) and purple (for piety and the ecclesiastical) with a white backdrop implicitly communicates the nature of the mystical union, where, an inseparable companionship is established which, again, is a typical India thought form.

The words "THAT THEY ALL MAY BE ONE, CHURCH OF SOUTH INDIA" are embossed in a circle round the lotus and the cross. The words are taken from the high priestly prayer of Jesus Christ who prayed not only for the 'Church' but also for the whole world. This universality is portrayed by placing the words in the form of a circle, a symbol which also represents the universe. "That they all may be one; that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in Me and I am in You.. (John 17:21)", is an inclusive affirmation which explicitly shows the centrality of Christ and the Church, His Body. Since it is the prayer of the Church, that it is not only churches but all people of India to be united, the theme of national integration is also taken care of in the emblem.

The imposing central position of the cross in the logo conveys the idea that it was the indefatigable, selfless supreme sacrifice that was made by Jesus on the cross that forms the base of the Church. The four ends of the cross are painted in deep colors indicating that it is the cross that guides all members inside and outside to join in one stream to pray and labour unitedly for a peaceful coexistence and communal harmony.

Affiliations with other churches

The Church of South India is a member of the Anglican Communion. Its Bishops participate in the Lambeth Conferences and it has representation on the Anglican Consultative Council. The C.S.I. is in full communion with the Malankara Mar Thoma Syrian Church of India and the Church of North India (CNI). It is also a member in the World Council of Churches and the National Council of Churches in India.

The CSI, CNI, and Mar Thoma Church jointly formed the Communion of Churches in India (CCI) in 1978 for mutual recognition of the ministry and leaders, intercommunal relationship, and to explore possibilities of working together especially in the field of evangelization in India and other areas of cooperation in the fulfillment of the mission of the Church.

Just A Story

Life is so filled with stress and strain that we cannot possibly endure it without some good stories. One story for the month. Best wishes

From the collection of Mr. Babu Abraham

The 99 Club...

Once upon a time, there lived a King who, despite his luxurious lifestyle, was neither happy nor content.

One day, the King came upon a servant who was singing happily while he worked. This fascinated the King; why was he, the Supreme Ruler of the Land, unhappy and gloomy, while a lowly servant had so much joy. The King asked the servant, "Why are you so happy?"

The man replied, "Your Majesty, I am nothing but a servant, but my family and I don't need too much - just a roof over our heads and warm food to fill our tummies."

The king was not satisfied with that reply. Later in the day, he sought the advice of his most trusted advisor. After hearing the King's woes and the servant's story, the advisor said, "Your Majesty, I believe that the servant has not been made part of The 99 Club."

"The 99 Club? And what exactly is that?" the King inquired.

The advisor replied, "Your Majesty, to truly know what The 99 Club is, place 99 Gold coins in a bag and leave it at this servant's doorstep."

When the servant saw the bag, he took it into his house. When he opened the bag, he let out a great shout of joy... So many gold coins!

He began to count them. After several counts, he was at last convinced that there were 99 coins. He wondered, "What could've happened to that last gold coin? Surely, no one would leave 99 coins!"

He looked everywhere he could, but that final coin was elusive. Finally, exhausted, he decided that he was going to have to work harder than ever to earn that gold coin and complete his collection.

From that day, the servant's life was changed. He was overworked, horribly grumpy, and castigated his family for not helping him make that 100th gold coin. He stopped singing while he worked.

Witnessing this drastic transformation, the King was puzzled. When he sought his advisor's help, the advisor said, "Your Majesty, the servant has now officially joined The 99 Club."

He continued, "The 99 Club is a name given to those people who have enough to be happy but are never contented, because they're always yearning and striving for that extra 1 telling to themselves: "Let me get that one final thing and then I will be happy for life."

We can be happy, even with very little in our lives, but the minute we're given something bigger and better, we want even more! We lose our sleep, our happiness, we hurt the people around us; all these as a price for our growing needs and desires. That's what joining The 99 Club is all about.

Day for Fasting and Intercession

We are observing every third Friday as a day for fasting and Intercession. The Church will remain open from 7.00 a.m. to 7.00 p.m. on September 21, the third Friday. You may come at any time during this period and pray for your various needs. The fellowship prayer is from 10.00 a.m. to 3.00 p.m. Anyone can share from the Word of God and give their testimony. We have time for singing and we do spend a considerable time for prayer. If you have any special prayer needs, please write it down and put it in the box kept in front of the Church for prayer requests or you may e-mail prayer @csiimmanuel.org or call 9447576406. There will be special time for prayer for healing. Those who are sick can come to the Church between 10.30 a.m to 11.30 a.m. for special prayers.
